THE FULTON CONVENTION.

A MONEY AND PARROT TIME—SPLIT WIDE OPEN—TWO CANDIDATES—APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE.

The Courier not being an active participant in local political proceedings did not have a representative at the Fulton convention, but we regret to learn that the convention was not harmonious, and that in fact a regular money and parrot time prevailed, resulting in two candidates, and much dissension and ill feeling. The convention was called to order by Mr. Charles Alexander, as Chairman of the County Committee, and proceedings were regular until Cayce precinct was called, when it appeared that there were two delegations from Cayce, one headed by Atteberry, and one by Dr. John Naylor. The ballot for temporary chairman was in progress when Alexander ruled in favor of the Atteberry delegation, whereupon an appeal to the house was made and refused. Here the pandemonium started, and our informant says that several fights commenced or were narrowly averted. The result was that the delegates from Hickman county, with some from Fulton, who were anti-Ayres, withdrew from the hall where the convention was being held, went elsewhere, and nominated Mr. R. B. Platt, of Hickman county. The Ayres men remained in the hall and declared Mr. Ayres to be the nominee.

The element that nominated Mr. Platt appear determined to make a hot fight all along the line, clear up to the regular election in November, and claim to have abundant material to justify their course. Of course the other side claim that Mr. Ayres' nomination is regular, and that the others were "bolters."

Col. Ayres in accepting the nomination, gallantly paraphrased Gov. Goebel's acceptance speech, that he "never received anything worth having without fighting for it," and that so esteeming the honor conferred, he was ready to fight the enemies of the Democracy, external or internal, etc.

Repairs on City Hall store room. 2.00

The Clerk reported that he had since last regular meeting, issued check to Keith, Simmons & Co., for 400 feet of hose recently purchased by the city; on motion, his action was approved by the Council.

Motion was made that the City Clerk with the assistance of the City Attorney, ascertain the amounts due on River Bank Bonds and see that proper credits have been made on same.

The Clerk reported that he had executed and delivered a deed to Mrs. Fannie Shaw for lot No. 170 in the City Cemetery; size of lot 60x22 feet also having filed with him Superintendent Dillon's receipt for $65.50 payment for same.

On motion the Council instructed the Clerk to issue and have served notices on the following named parties, to have their side walks repaired within ten days after notice: John Kistner, around his property on lot No. 126 in West Hickman; Johnna Naylor and Dr. A. A. Faris, on south side of their property, situate just west of lot No. 136 in West Hickman; C. A. Holcombe, on south side of his property on lots No. 169, 170, 197, 198, Old Hickman.

Motion was made that Mr. Davis prepare a form for a book suitable to record all city checks issued and present same at next regular meeting.

KILLED.

Will Johnson Kills Will Lawson.

On Tuesday, a trouble occurred between Will Johnson and Will Lawson, two colored men, in which Johnson shot and killed Lawson. The two men had been associates, living together, kept their meat in the same smoke-house. On Saturday night Lawson removed his meat, or the meat, and Johnson complained to the officers. Lawson was arrested, brought before the City Court, and fined $20.00. Lawson, who owns a team, had agreed to pay the fine by work for the city. He had got his team ready for work, and was taking a lunch at Finis Thompson's restaurant, when Johnson came up, saying, "You had the advantage of me this morning," and immediately fired, the ball striking Lawson in the side. The wound was necessarily fatal. Dr. Faris was immediately called in, but medical skill could do no good.

After the killing, Johnson left, and has not yet been arrested.

The claim of other cough remedies to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough during the winter of 1897, taking every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlahan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I get a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough remedies. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.

MOB AT TIPTONVILLE.

The Sheriff of Lake County spirited away the negro Fitzgerald from the Tiptonville jail, where he was incarcerated for assaulting a Miss Nina. Michael Tye negro's crime was that which the law is rarely called on to punish. Judge Lynch generally deals with the case. Miss Michael is an orphan girl, 18 years old, white, and passed the negro over Reelfoot Lake, when he made the assault. She made her escape from him and reported the facts to the people at Tiptonville.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

DRAWING CONTEST

At the residence of Mr. J. E. Faqua, on Friday eve last, a number of young people enjoyed a social entertainment. The guests were joyfully entertained by the hostess, Miss Maybell, with various amusements, among them being a drawing contest, which proved to be a very interesting feature of the evening. The contestants were each required to make a drawing, and the one proving to be the best artist, received the prize. Miss Laura Brown was the deserving winner for the first prize, and Miss Frankie Reid won the booty. The guests report to a Courier representative that they had a delightful evening of enjoyment.

APRON PARTY.

The most enjoyable social event of the season, in the Ash Log Ridge neighborhood, was an Apron Party, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hushaw, on Wednesday, January 30th.

The young girls offered a nice cake to the young man who should put the most heat on an apron. The following couples were contestants for the prize:

Will Snodberry and Sheller Stowe; Henry McMillen and Lena Brown; Sam Tanner and Lexie Alexander; Bill Wisco and Ivy Marrow; Luther Turnbow and Ella Hare; this Snodberry and Blah Marrow; Jesse Anderson and Emma Patterson; Bob Patterson and Ruby Bowman; Clay Evans and Maud Johnson; Henry Marrow and Anne Johnson; Fred Johnson and Blanche Hyer. After a careful examination the judges awarded the prize to Bob Patterson. We spent a very pleasant evening and all hope that Mr. and Mrs. Hushaw will remember us again in the near future.

IN REMORIAM.

In sweet remembrance of Carrie B. Polk, born March 2nd, 1880, died January 26th, 1901. "It is so hard." Such was the sad expression which passed from lip to lip as they placed her body in the silent tomb; but as the frost cuts down the choicest flowers, even so death claims our most loved ones. She was a consistent member of the Baptist church for three years, and as the chilly waters of death closed around her she shrank not, but clasped her white hands, and with voice said, "Dear Jesus take me home," and as her stay on earth grew briefer, she sang, "We will reign in glory with Jesus here and here."

She is not dead but sleeping. "She faded in beauty she died in youth. In the springtime of innocence, virtue and truth. Like the bud but just opened, then chilled into night. Like the bright star of evening, obscured by black night. She lives in the Heaven of Heavens above. Rereading the story of Jesus' kind love. She lists the sweet music of that blest abode. And sings hallelujahs of praise to her God."

We grieve not as those without hope: for in eternity's dawn we will meet her. Carrie in a home over there, where afflictions never come.

ONE WHO LOVED HER.

The press is unanimous in expressions of commendation of Mr. Bingham's inimitable entertainments. As a character artist he is said to be unsurpassed. So all desiring an evening's enjoyment of "Song, Music and Story," should not fail to attend.

The greatest danger from cold and influenza is their resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. It will cure a cold or an attack of influenza in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.

The new Cumberland Presbyterian church has under construction in the vestibule, and the reflection of the sun on a lamp within gives the appearance to passers on the street of a lighted lamp, always burning, each day, sunshine or cloudy. Is this in accord with the Bible injunction to keep your lamps trimmed and burning?

The claim of other cough remedies to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Ives Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: I had kept adding to a cold and cough during the winter of 1897, taking every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houshman and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if it was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines. For sale by Cowgill & Cowgill, Hickman, and A. M. Shaw, State Line.

MOB AT Tiptonville.

The Sheriff of Leno County, informed away the negro Fitzgerald from the Tiptonville jail, where he was incarcerated for assaulting a Miss Nina. Michael Tee negro's crime was that which the law is rarely called on to punish. Judge Lynch generally deals with the case. Miss Michael is an orphan girl, 18 years old, white, and passed the negro near Reelfoot Lake, when he made the assault. She made her escape from him and reported the facts to the people at Tiptonville.
